Area Information

The City of Champions Revitalization Project is a 298-acre, mixed-use real estate development being built on the former site of the Hollywood Racetrack and Casino: This is the largest parcel of undeveloped land in the Greater Los Angeles area.

Anchored by the new sports and entertainment arena, Clippers owner Steve Ballmer is financing the stadium 100% with private money, after recently buying the Los Angeles Clippers for $2 billion. An 80,000 seat NFL Specification stadium that has a capacity of 100,000, this stadium will be the largest and most expensive arena in the world at 3 million SF and $2.66 billion. Also, to be added: 780,000 SF of high-end office space, 800,000 SF of retail and dining space, 2,500 residential units, a hotel and a movie theater.

With the expected finishing date in 2024, it has the ability to host Super Bowls, Final Fours, concerts, and potentially the 2024 Summer Olympics, bringing additional revenue into Inglewood and the Greater Los Angeles area.
